Simply mix one egg and a mashed up banana. Apply it as a thick paste to your hair and leave it on for 10 – 30 minutes. Wash it out doing your usual hair washing ritual (if you usually use a store-bought conditioner you'll probably only need to condition the ends).

TIPS

- To avoid smell in refrigerator, place sliced lemon in it.
- To clean your microwave take a bowl with water and add lemon juice to it. Heat for 5-10 mins. Clean using cotton cloth.
- If you love to create chutney or sauces, try to keep them in earthen pots. They will remain fresh for longer time.
- If you want to avoid lizards in your kitchen, place egg shells at any corner.
- Put cloves in Sugar box, and say NO to Ants.
- Cover your peeled potatoes with cold to avoid them turning black.
- Squeeze lemon juice to avoid apple rusting.
- Place cardamom in tea box and let them give you freshness.
- Keep your banana fresh by tying stem part with plastic.
- If you use ginger-garlic paste frequently then create the paste and keep in refrigerator in sealed box [to avoid smell] for future use.
- In summers for Raita or curd we need masala salt. Make it and place in box for longer use. It saves time [bhuna jeera(cumin) + black salt + heeng + cloves + kali mirch + ajwain].

TIPS

Use heavy bottomed vessel for boiling milk and for preparations using milk like kheer. Before adding the milk, a little water can be added to the vessel to avoid the milk from sticking to the bottom and getting burnt. Toasting nuts, rice, rava and dal (lentils) before cooking with it increases its flavors considerably. Adding few drops of oil to the rice before cooking it will prevent it from becoming sticky.

Two Thieves returned after robbing a bank. "Let's see how much we got!" said the first thief. "No I'm tired," said the second thief. "We'll find it from the morning papers."

Store natural peanut butter upside down so it won't separate as much

BOOST AND IMPROVE YOUR IMMUNE SYSTEM

RED BELL PEPPERS

If you think citrus fruits have the most vitamin C of any fruit or vegetable, think again. Ounce for ounce, red bell peppers contain almost 3 times as much vitamin C (127 mg Trusted Source) as a Florida orange (45 mg Trusted Source). They're also a rich source of beta carotene. Besides boosting your immune system, vitamin C may help you maintain healthy skin. Beta carotene, which your body converts into vitamin A, helps keep your eyes and skin healthy.

SUNFLOWER SEEDS

Sunflower seeds are full of nutrients, including phosphorous, magnesium, and vitamins B-6 and E. Vitamin E is important in regulating and maintaining immune system function. Other foods with high amounts of vitamin E include avocados and dark leafy greens. Sunflower seeds are also incredibly high in selenium. Just 1 ounce contains nearly half Trusted Source the selenium that the average adult needs daily. A variety of studies, mostly performed on animals, have looked at its potential to combat viral infections such as swine flu (H1N1).

Tips

Adding few drops of oil to the rice before cooking it will prevent it from becoming sticky.

"Look at those two women. They look very much alike. "I'm sure they are twins."
"No. They both went to the same plastic surgeon."

Indian Cuisine in a Nutshell The Thali

By Chef. Neena Hoshi

Associate Dean, GHMCT RUAS, Bangalore.

There are literally hundreds of sweet and savoury snack foods in India which are typically served for breakfast and for evening tea. This is unmatched by any cuisine in the world. The wide range of snacks starting from the 'Vada and Idli' of South India to the 'Samosa and Dumplings' of North India. Gujarat and Maharashtra cannot be left behind with 'Thepla, Khakra, Dhokla, Vada Pav and Missal Pav'.

What's great about Indian cuisine is its adaptability to evolving food trends in the world. Be it 'Vegan' or 'Bowl Foods' or 'Fusion', Indian cuisine has blended and made its presence felt. If Indian cuisine is still not the top trending cuisine in the world, it is only due to the ignorance of gourmets in understanding the diverse nature of the food and the million different ways in which Indian cuisine can be part of any menu for any occasion and for any taste in the world. From the 'Dal Raisina' served to the Indian President to 'Palak Chaat' served to the American President, Indian cuisine as a global concept is here to stay. Let's raise a hat to the 'Incredible Indian Cuisine'
