BEST NATIONAL PARKS IN AUSTRALIA

FREYCINET NATIONAL PARK

The Hazards, rugged pink and red granite mountains, rise out of the sea at Freycinet National Park, Tasmania's oldest park. Below the formations are the gorgeous blue waters of Wineglass Bay, considered one of the best beaches in Australia. While you're on the lookout for rare flora and fauna (this is a good place for birdwatchers), you may come across sites associated with the aborigines. Some areas of the park are so remote, they have yet to be visited by humans, who otherwise visit here for sea kayaking, fishing, beachcombing and other water activities.

Kakadu National Park may be the only place on earth where you can see both crocodiles and aboriginal rock art. Aborigines have lived in the region for 40,000 years, creating their rock art in about 5,000 places. Located in the Northern Territory, Kakadu is home to diverse terrain, and flora and fauna, including kangaroos and giant crocodiles – the Alligator River is within park boundaries. It is the largest national park in Australia; about half the size of Switzerland. Situated inside the park is Ranger Uranium Mine, one of the world's most productive.

KAKADU NATIONAL PARK

NAMBUNG NATIONAL PARK

Nambung National Park is another place that combines the ocean with outstanding rock formations. Only these rock formations, some dating back 3.6 billion years, aren't in the water; they're in the adjacent Pinnacles Desert. Thousands of pinnacles or pillars rise up from the yellow sand bordering the Indian Ocean; some formations are short and fat, others are skinny and taller. Wildlife is abundant here, with 176 species of animals, so you might see grey or red kangaroos, dingoes and even humpback whales during their migration season. Enjoy a walk on the Western Australia beach at Kangaroo Point.

1. Use a spoon instead of a peeler for peeling ginger. It scrapes off the skin easily and reduces wastage..
2. Keep your onions in the refrigerator. A chilled onion is easier to chop, and causes fewer tears*Mohammed*

QUOTES FOR THE MONTH

- ☺ If everyone is happy with you, surely you have made many compromises in your life. If you are happy with every one, surely you have ignored many fault of others.
- ☺ Happiness depends upon ourselves.
- ☺ Experience makes one modified. Training makes one qualified. But Involvement alone makes everything achieved.
- ☺ Family, nature and health all go together.
- ☺ Waves are inspiring not because they rise and fail. But because each time fail, they never fail to rise again! Hope you rise always.
- ☺ The economy is a very sensitive organism.
- ☺ Like the bee gathering Honey from different flowers, Wise men accept the essence of different scriptures and see only the good in all religions.
- ☺ True friendship is like a small lamp in a dark forest. It does not show everything at once. But it gives enough light for the next step to safe.
- ☺ Only a cup which is empty can be filled. Once it is full, we cannot add anything into it. Only in the valley of humility, drops of wisdom gather on the high mountains.
- ☺ The food that enters the mind must be watched as closely as the food that enters the body.
- ☺ Wealth consists not in having great possessions, but in having few wants.
- ☺ For the merchant, even honesty is a financial speculation.
- ☺ Happiness is not a matter of events; it depends upon the tides of the mind.
- ☺ Cherish your human connections, your relationship with friends and family.
- ☺ A family can develop only with a loving woman as its center.
- ☺ We are twice armed if we fight with faith.

Learn about.....

Robert Mondavi Private Selection Bourbon Barrel Aged Cabernet Sauvignon

This special Bourbon barrel aged wine originates in the coastal vineyards of Monterey County, CA, where the region's dynamic, geologic past brings forth fruit with an unmistakable sense of place. Grapes are picked at the peak of ripeness, after which the wine is aged and blended to deliver exceptional fruit flavors and complexity. Unique to this wine, a portion of the blend is aged for an additional three months, using a combination of new and used Kentucky Bourbon barrels, creating one of the first Bourbon barrel aged wines produced in the United States.

Bourbon barrels are 100% American oak barrels that have been charred to help impart deep toasty flavors and hints of vanilla and brown sugar. Cabernet Sauvignon is particularly suited for Bourbon barrel aging because its intensely rich fruit character isn't overwhelmed by the flavors of the charred casks. The wine is rich, weighty, and full bodied on the palette, and the 2014 vintage delivers robust flavors of black cherry and blackberry. The Robert Mondavi Private Selection Bourbon Barrel Aged Cabernet Sauvignon will be released in limited-production and is available nationally now. Suggested retail price is $13.99 for 750mL.
