TOP TOURIST ATTRACTIONS IN THE WORLD

This was originally called the Flavian Amphitheatre and was mostly used as public entertainment arena. The Colosseum is one of the most famous attractions in Rome and is where most gladiatorial fights took place. Today, actors in gladiator clothes stand outside the Colosseum, where you can take pictures with them (for a price!) The Colosseum is a testament to the ingenuity of the builders, having stood the test of time. While parts have been damaged, the Colosseum still remains standing in most of its original glory today. It is advisable that you buy your tickets in advance to skip the ticketing queue, which can be quite the time saver!

Rome

The Grand Canyon

Yellowstone's Grand Canyon is one of the most iconic sites in the region, providing several stunning vistas as you go along. This almost 40 km long canyon is a large and the most famous canyon in Yellowstone. It is hugely popular among visitors due to its scenic views of the Lower and Upper falls, as well as the fascinating pink and yellow coloured rocks. There are several viewpoints and points of interest along the length of the canyon. The canyon's beautiful shades of colours are an iconic part of Yellowstone. The mineral stains due to the activities of water have given the rocks of the canyon such a pleasant tint of colours, it is truly a sight to behold. The geology of the canyon is not completely clear. It was created due to erosion over hundreds of thousands of years, and the geothermal nature of the area is still prevalent, which can be seen by the hot springs throughout the canyon.

Lula Cellars

an independent ultra-premium winery located in Northern California's lauded Anderson Valley, is proud to announce that their 2017 Peterson Vineyard Pinot Noir was awarded a Double Gold and 94 points at the 2019 West Coast Wine Competition (East Meets West) last month in Santa Rosa, California. This win is especially significant because the wine is the first release from winemaker Matt Parish, who joined the winery in June 2017.

Matt is a renowned winemaker whose skills span 25 vintages – from small luxury wineries to the world's largest publicly listed wine company to a wine start up that features his own label. And after more than twenty years of winemaking, his skills shine bright with Pinot Noirs in particular.

"I have always loved Pinot Noirs, and this area of Northern California is very special," states Matt. "The Peterson Vineyard, which was planted in 1999, is in the small mountain town of Comptche. Because it's eight miles east of the coast and 700 feet above sea level, there is a dramatic cooling effect that promotes slow, even ripening and yields rich, concentrated flavors. We had lots of rain in 2017 and the growing season was temperate, producing very intense, flavorful fruit."

Tongue Twisters

Esau Wood sawed wood. All the wood Esau Wood saw, Esau Wood would saw. All the wood Wood saw, Esau sought to saw. One day Esau Wood's wood-saw would saw no wood. So Esau Wood sought a new wood-saw. The new would saw wood. Oh, the wood Esau Wood would saw. Esau sought a saw that would saw wood as no other wood-saw would saw. And Esau found a saw that would saw as no other would saw. And Esau Wood sawed wood.
